

Dear Member, Dear prospective Member, here comes our invitation for this year's journey of the Austrobrits

Summer weekend cultural excursion:

With D.H. Lawrence on Lake Garda

“The lake is dark blue, purple, and clear as a jewel, with swarms of fishes.”

Join us in tracing the steps of D.H. Lawrence and his lover Frieda Weekly soon after their elopement. See the lake as Lawrence and Frieda saw it for the first time at Riva, then follow them along the west bank down to Limone, Gargnano and Salo. Hear extracts from his writing inspired by his travels.

The coach trip takes place on Saturday and Sunday, 2nd and 3rd July, leaving Innsbruck on the Saturday morning and returning on the Sunday evening. Overnight accommodation will be in a three-star hotel in Salo on a bed and breakfast basis. Your guide for the trip will be Society President Andrew Milne-Skinner of Innsbruck University, who has had a life-long interest in the travel literature of Lawrence.

The cost per person will be €195.00 based on two sharing a twin or double room (incl. breakfast). There will be a €12 surcharge for single rooms (limited number).
